A Case-Based Workshop on Costs Issues

9:30 - 12:30

Content:

In today's complex arbitration landscape, funding arrangements and proceeding costs are increasingly shaping procedural dynamics.

This interactive workshop provided by Vienna International Arbitral Centre (VIAC) representatives dives into a realistic case scenario involving undisclosed third-party funding, a request for security for costs, and the tribunal's discretion on cost reimbursement:

- Introduction to VIAC
- Balancing the Scales: Interim Measures in the Shadow of undisclosed third-party funding
- Reimbursement and Responsibility: Awarding Costs Reimbursement

Trainers:

The Sweet Spot of Investment Fund Disputes: Why Arbitration Fits?

16:50 - 17:20

Content:

As investment funds evolve across their lifecycle—from formation and structuring to operation and exit—disputes between sponsors, investors, and other stakeholders can arise at various stages.

Being a tailored and confidential forum for resolving these conflicts, arbitration often proves to be the 'sweet spot' for fund-related disputes.

This panel will share insights and discuss use cases drawn from its experience advising sponsors and investors in asset and/or investment management-related disputes.
